

We invest in early-stage, high-growth companies that have the potential to improve lives, and change the world and their industries for the better.

OVERVIEW & MARKET LANDSCAPE

OVERVIEW

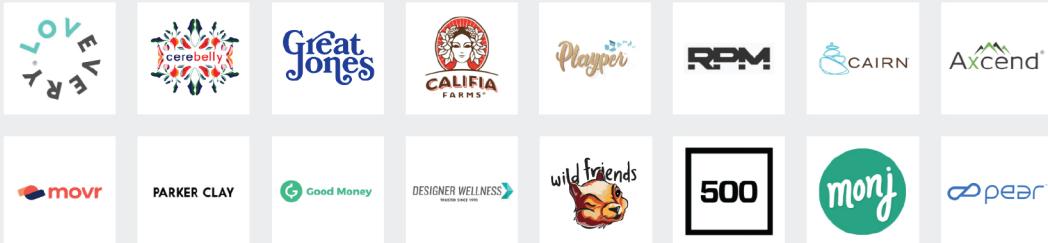

- We back founders with innovative solutions to challenges.
- We believe profit and purpose are equally important.
- We treat people with respect, operate with integrity, and only invest when we can add real value.

MARKET LANDSCAPE

We believe the COVID-19 pandemic, while challenging, has permanently changed consumer behavior in favor of key areas of KC's core competency in consumer products and services, resulting in significant and substantial opportunity for our current portfolio companies and additional investments.
